Seto Ohashi Bridge Commemorative Park

This park was built to commemorate Seto Ohashi bridge building. It covers an area of 10.2 hectares and has many sights to see. Main promenade where you see various fountains with a design of the bridge, Marine Dome which is the largest wooden dome in Japan, etc. There's also Seto Ohashi Bridge Commemorative Hall, where you can see panels, pictures and moving miniature models to learn the whole picture of the bridge.

Keihan Fisherman's Wharf

Yoshima island is the only island you can access from Seto Central Highway. Inside the Yoshima PA No. 2 parking area there is Keihan Fisherman's Wharf. Many restaurants where you can enjoy fresh seafood and souvenir shops with local special products are lined up. You can also enjoy a cruise on the excursion boat "Kanrin-maru".

National Treasure, Kandani Shrine

Kandani shrine is located in the back of West Goshikidai plateau. It was named "Kandani (gods' valley)" since ancient gods are believed to have gathered here to play. It is designated as a national treasure for its oldest main shrine with the structure of "Sangensha-nagare-zukuri (the typical construction structure from the Kamakura era in 1192 to 1333)". When you stand inside the tranquil precinct you might fancy hearing the gods talking and playing.
